THE THEATRE ROYAL PRESENTS BELL SHAKESPEARE'S

THE TAMING OF THE SHREW

BY WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

“For I am he am born to tame you, Kate, And bring you from a wild Kate to a Kate Conformable as other household Kates.”

Celebration, festivities and joy. They're all here as two men come to Padua in pursuit of learning and love.

The first, Lucentio, fixes his gaze on Bianca, the sweet and gentle daughter of the merchant Baptista. The second, Petruchio, hears of Bianca's wanton and wild sister, Kate, and vows to tame her and teach her to be an agreeable wife. All will be married; all will be well.

Or so it would seem.

Directed by award-winning director Marion Potts and featuring an all-female cast, this new production of one of Shakespeare's most controversial comedies transcends expectation and preconception, taking the politics of marriage to ludicrous new heights. Vibrant, energetic and packed with female punch, The Taming of the Shrew is the perfect night out for anyone who has ever fallen in love and managed to survive it.
