THE DANCE OF THE BANKSIA WICKS

The design of The Hedberg carpet was inspired by a story that was shared with the building's architects while walking along a windswept East Coast beach.

Above the sound of crashing surf and the cry of gulls, they learned how the first Tasmanians transported fire by enclosing dry, smouldering banksia cones inside two abalone shells. Wrapped in bull kelp, the shells were carried from hearth to hearth and it was law to share the fire with any rival group who requested it.

Influencing the design of The Hedberg, a place where creativity is celebrated and cultural knowledge is shared, architects at Liminal and WOHA brought the symbolism of a shimmering opalescent shell to the building's exterior and the warmth of burning embers to its interior.

The collaboration between Liminal and Tasmanian Aboriginal artist Michelle Maynard weaves the colour of glowing coals into the design of the unique carpet. Its rich hues and fluid markings create the foundation for the meeting and gathering places of The Hedberg community.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

The Theatre Royal acknowledges the traditional owners of the land on which we work and meet, the muwinina people of nipaluna/Hobart, and all palawa peoples of lutruwita/Tasmania. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging, and thank them for their custodianship of this land.

SIMON'S WELCOME

Simon Wellington, Chief Executive

The Theatre Royal is a theatre for everyone. It's where I saw my first theatre show, and it has inspired my ongoing love of the arts. It's a place where the curious seek out new ideas and see and hear the stories that reflect our lives and the lives of others. It's a platform for artists to wrestle with big ideas, invite us to think in different ways, and to bring joy and hope.

I am inspired by our new building, which allows us to program more productions and events and respond to the changing needs of our community.

In 2022, we are going to share with you the country's most interesting creative artists, companies and cultural thinkers. There are large-scale productions on the Main Stage - Incredible dance, breathtaking circus, spine-tingling opera, and artists working with cutting-edge technology.

We have an extraordinary theatre program – our biggest ever! I can't wait for you to see and hear the powerful new voices that will be tackling important issues and ideas in our Studio Theatre. The intimacy of that space brings something so special and engaging to the communal act of storytelling – not a breath or movement goes unnoticed.

We will ramp up efforts to support the vibrancy of our local creative community, partnering with a wide range of Tasmanian artists and companies, developing the next generation of audiences.

We will use our spaces in new and interesting ways, provide public programs that spark your curiosity, engaging digital experiences and thinking and working outside of the building. You will see new events popping up during the year as we continue to rethink the role of our venue and the ways in which we work with artists and explore new experiences for audiences.

Our season kicks off with takara nipaluna, a remarkable walking tour of nipaluna/Hobart developed and presented by Nunami Sculthorpe-Green, which will transform the way you look at and relate to our city. Come walking with us. This is what culture is all about - seeking out and discovering new ideas and perspectives to understand our place in the world.

When you turn the page, we will take you through our 2022 Subscription Season and the diverse program curated for Theatre Royal audiences. We will outline the different ways that you can subscribe and buy tickets and invite you to purchase discounted tickets to shows presented by our partners.

See you in the foyer.

Simon Wellington,
Chief Executive

OUR VENUES

Originally built in 1837, the Theatre Royal's Main Stage is the oldest working theatre in Australia.

The Theatre Royal Main Stage is a resilient theatre that is not only an iconic piece of Tasmania's history but a living home for the performing arts.

An intimate 700-seat theatre that has seen Laurence Olivier, Noël Coward, Vivien Leigh and Marcel Marceau tread the boards, welcomes today's artists to do the same.

5

The Studio Theatre is a state-of-the-art venue suitable for all types of performances. Seating up to 300 people, there's an engaging intimacy to the Studio Theatre that champions storytellers and artists working across a broad range of art forms.

BARS & FOYERS

The Theatre Royal bars are a great place to meet friends and family before a show. We offer a wide selection of Tasmanian wines, beers and cider, as well as non-alcoholic beverages. With bars located in all three foyers, enjoying a drink or snack at the Theatre Royal is easy for everyone. Drinks may be enjoyed in the foyer or in the theatre.

Our foyers are open 60 minutes prior to a performance and offer quiet corners and inviting lounges where you can relax and have a drink.

"A WONDERFUL BALANCE OF

Funny and incredibly moving, Black Cockatoo is a new artistic collaboration between iconic Australian writer Geoffrey Atherden (Mother and Son, Babakiueria) and recent Sydney Festival Artistic Director Wesley Enoch (Black Diggers, The 7 Stages of Grieving).

More than 150 years ago, 13 brave Aboriginal men in Western Victoria picked up their cricket bats and embarked on a treacherous voyage to England and into the unknown – all in the name of sport. Risking illness and persecution, Australia's first international cricket team – including Australia's first Indigenous sporting hero, Johnny Mullagh – amazed the English crowds with astonishing talent, personality and grit. They should have returned to Australia as celebrated heroes. Instead, they came back to find the world they once knew was no longer there.

This is not just a story about cricket – this is a story of strength, resistance, hope and possibility. When a group of young present-day activists sneak into the Wimmera Discovery Centre to expose the truth of what happened to Johnny and his teammates, a hidden legend of triumph and tragedy unfolds.

GET UP MUM

BY JUSTIN HEAZLEWOOD - PRODUCED BY FAR AND AWAY PRODUCTIONS

The first of our home-grown shows in 2022, we're thrilled to present Tassie's creative triple-threat Justin Heazlewood (AKA The Bedroom Philosopher) who writes, composes and performs his autobiographical work Get Up Mum. Justin's work is a fascinating, uplifting and entertaining contribution to our growing conversation about mental health. It's Burnie, Tasmania, 1992. Justin is an only child living with his mother who suffers from schizophrenia. When she is well, Mum is perfect. She knows he likes his carrots raw and his toast cooled, and she knows how to soothe his growing pains. But when she is sick, she cries uncontrollably and never gets out of bed. Funny and sad in equal measure, Get Up Mum is a nostalgic rollercoaster ride of cassette tapes, caravans and coming of age. An only child and his Mum are trying to love each other but mental illness keeps getting in the way. Get Up Mum is a show-and-tell crossed with a live radio play as Justin talks with the tape-recordings he fastidiously collected during his childhood - the soundtrack to a never-ending story.

THEATRE ROYAL PRESENTS A CRITICAL STAGES TOURING PRODUCTION

THE YEAR OF MAGICAL THINKING

BY JOAN DIDION

The details will be different, but it will happen to you.

If you've read her books and essays, or watched the Netflix doco, you know that Joan Didion is one of the most deeply intelligent and thoughtful writers of the 20th century.

This highly personal account of loss through the lens of hope unpacks a surreal and overwhelming time in Didion's life as she faces the sudden loss of her husband John, and later her daughter Quintana. Deeply moving, sometimes funny, and ultimately joyful, this is one woman's story of the journey to find acceptance, and the lessons learnt in letting go. After a critically acclaimed sellout premiere season in Melbourne, this production is a must-see for all fans of great writing and drama.

SWANSONG

Set in the 1960s, Swansong tells the story of Austin 'Occi' Byrne (Andre De Vanny), the illegitimate child of a single mother in the Catholic west of Ireland. Shunned by church, state and family, Occi and his beloved Mammy are outcast and ostracized.

After childhood bullying leaves him with mild brain damage Occi struggles to control his increasingly violent impulses as Mammy spirals ever further into alcohol abuse. Occi must fight his way to adulthood in a dog-eat-dog world. It's an exhilarating journey that plunges him into murder and mayhem, love and death, only to return him to the place where he began.

This acclaimed work directed by Greg Carroll promises to immerse the audience in a bleak and crushing world and, through redemption, lift them out again, transformed by the guttural and lyrical vernacular and the threatening yet gentle physicality of Swansong.

In another virtuosic solo performance, writer/performer Emily Goddard and director Susie Dee (Animal and Anthem) bring us their highly acclaimed 'anti-bonnet drama' inspired by the rebellion and resistance of the female convicts of Van Diemen's Land.

Be transported back to 1839, to Tasmania's infamous Cascades Female Factory, where in a solitary cell on the edge of survival, Mary Ford waits alone in the darkness. Left for dead, ten thousand miles from home, she plots her escape and reveals, with biting mockery, the untold tales of her captors.

With a tour-de-force performance by Emily Goddard, This is Eden is an extraordinary tale that has largely escaped our nation's history books. Winner of the 2018 Drama Victoria Award and nominated for Best Performer at the Green Room Awards, this powerful, ground-breaking one-woman show is equally dark, funny, insightful and provocative.

THEATRE ROYAL PRESENTS

ZOOM BY PATCH THEATRE

Patch Theatre have become one of the leading theatre for young people companies in the world. Their innovative design and experimentation with new technologies creates visual theatre at its most magnificent and magical. This is a must for young audiences and families.

Combining old-school whimsy with state-of-the-art technology, ZOOM is an enchanting story of a child alone in her bedroom, unable to sleep and curious to understand. She begins a transformational journey with light and discovers that the dark is a magical place.

Adventures happen, and the audience must help a lost star find its way home. Part music video, part dream, ZOOM is a beautiful and immersive show that explores what dreams are made of.

Inspired by iconic children's book "Harold and The Purple Crayon," ZOOM is driven by the power of 'child logic', combined with the magic of science.

ZOOM begins at home or in the classroom, as we invite our audience to bring a piece of dark to the show. At the theatre, their dark is exchanged for their own personal light – a little spark that will keep them safe and help guide them through the interactive sessions of the show.

THE BARBER OF SEVILLE

AN OPERA AUSTRALIA PRODUCTION

24

Image Credit: Gorges Antoni

Beyond haircuts and beard trims, this canny barber is the city's matchmaking maestro. Almaviva is wealthy, stealthy and head over heels. Rosina is witty, pretty and equally smitten. She's also betrothed. They need a plan. Time to call on: Fi-ga-ro! Figaro! Figaro!

The stage is set for comic chaos. The Barber of Seville pops with lyrical acrobatics and irrepressibly funny characters. Rossini's most famous 'opera buffa' is a musical masterpiece with a storyline that would be equally at home in a Hollywood rom-com.

Opera Australia's finest voices and a live orchestra deliver a score that is instantly familiar from movies, cartoons and commercials.

Delight in a riotous romp along the road to true love. This is opera at its light-hearted, effervescent best.

A must-see if you love Downton Abbey, Sliding Doors, clever disguises gone wrong and a case of mistaken identities.

AMY'S TATTOO

BY ALISON MANN

25

This new Tasmanian play heralds the arrival of an exceptional playwriting talent and caps off a great season of timely, relevant theatre in our Studio Theatre.

Amy's Tattoo is a gritty tale of attraction, love, friendship and family. It challenges social taboos, questions the paradox of nature and nurture and is unafraid of the space between the dark places.

Amy is a talented local tattoo artist, who's world is changed by the entrance of John, a teenage champion swimmer conceived using one of her eggs donated anonymously 20 years ago.

Amy's Tattoo was developed during Alison Mann's time as Writer in Residence as part of Blue Cow Theatre's Cowshed playwrights and plays development program, and follows her critically acclaimed The Surgeon's Hands.

TERRAPIN, IN ASSOCIATION WITH THEATRE ROYAL, PRESENTS

SCAREDY CAT

26

Image Credit: Amy Brown

Terrapin recently celebrated their 40th birthday and have been responsible for introducing hundreds of thousands of young Tasmanians to the magic of theatre. Their work is increasingly in demand around the world and this school holiday production comes on the back of a season at Sydney Opera House.

Scaredy Cat comes from a long line of fierce hunters, hired for the biggest jobs, with the meanest rodents. When an urgent call comes in, it's Scaredy's turn to do the family proud. Only problem is, she's terrified of mice.

Trapped in an old basement with three cunning critters, Scaredy is bullied and all alone – or so she thinks. As the antique furniture in the basement comes creakily to life, a whole new world of eccentric characters is revealed, leading Scaredy on a journey she'll never forget.

Terrapin's new production for 2022 is a funny, beautiful and fantastic story of friendship across generations. Cute doesn't mean no courage, and old age doesn't make you obsolete.

THE COMEDY OF ERRORS

BY WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

27

Bell Shakespeare are back in town. Continuing their commitment to taking great theatre around the country, this popular classic follows up the beautifully crafted and performed A Midsummer Night's Dream they brought us in 2021.

Shipwrecked and separated 33 years earlier, two sets of long-lost twins miraculously find themselves in the same city on the same day. What could possibly go wrong?

The Comedy of Errors is a hilarious romp of swapped identities, misguided love, mistaken imprisonment and chaotic mishaps, leading to an unbelievably crazy day for bumbling twins.

At the heart of this tale of comedic misfortune is an old man searching for his lost children. He finds himself in a hostile land, in the fight of his life... to save his life. As far-fetched coincidences unfold, chaotic hilarity ensues and a man's life could be saved — if only everything would go to plan.

The Big Chill is a film in which survivors of the 1960's ask themselves how they could possibly be in their 30's - just as survivors of the 90's ask how could they possibly still be alive in their 50's. The one thing that all generations have is the soundtrack that accompanied their rush towards the inevitable. It means everything.

The film is about nothingness and, in the end, nothing much really happens, but in between we have the magnificence of The Rolling Stones, Marvin Gaye, Aretha Franklin, Creedence and many more.

The songs are the stars and we've got stars singing them for you, with Karise Eden accompanied by The Big Chill Band.

It is highly unlikely that those students who first donned drag and kicked up their heels in Old Nick's first Uni Revue in 1948 'Smokin Hot', could have imagined that they were part of what would become a Tasmanian institution.

For the last 75 years the most popular show in Tasmania has been the annual Uni Revue. Arguably the biggest in the southern hemisphere if not the world, it has launched careers, documented world and local events, terrorised political leaders, and kept Tasmanian audiences laughing with its toes over the edge, boundary pushing, and at times slightly inappropriate satire and humour.

Join us for our 75th edition as we celebrate an icon of Tasmanian theatre and some of the legends and gags it created while trying to keep up with these ever-changing times.

When the newspaper fails and the TV too, you can always rely on a Uni Revue.

DONATE

As Australia's oldest working theatre, we are proud of the Theatre Royal's history and committed to ensuring an even more sustainable future for our buildings, Tasmanian artists and future generations of audiences.

We are excited about the increased opportunities in our new and improved facilities and passionate about presenting live theatre for all Tasmanians to experience. By making a donation, you can help expand the opportunities for Tasmanians to engage with creative and cultural activities.

In 2022, your donations will contribute the following important areas:

- Access support for children and young people
- Access for people from disadvantaged communities
- Support and development opportunities for Tasmanian artists

39

We believe that everyone should have opportunities to access arts and culture, regardless of their background or life circumstances. Every donation to the Theatre Royal helps improve access for young people and community members who would not otherwise be able to attend, for a whole range of reasons.

In 2022, we will build on our existing access programs, as well as expanding the support we provide Tasmanian artists to develop and present their work on our stages. Providing space and financial support to artists is a small contribution towards a richer cultural community, and new performance works that are relevant to our audiences.

You can donate online at theatreroyal.com.au or at the Theatre Royal Box Office.

Donations of $2 or more are tax deductible.
