

Theatre Royal Giving Program

We believe that everyone has the right to experience and participate in creativity.

Through access to the arts, we ignite young imaginations, improve learning outcomes, and create optimism about the future.

Help us empower the next generation to create, thrive and dream big.

Donate now

theatreroyal.com.au/donate

Applause Access Program

With your help, we are aiming to support more disadvantaged students each year to experience a show at the theatre.

Your donations fund:

- Free and subsidised Theatre Royal tickets for disadvantaged students
- Bus transport support for non-metro and regional schools

Across 2023-2024, the Applause Access Program has supported:

804

students to attend the theatre

15

schools with bus transport

RAWspace Artist Development program

RAWspace supports Tasmanian artists to develop exciting new works for our stages, through creative development support and by connecting artists to audiences both locally and nationally.

Since 2022, the Theatre Royal has supported:

14

RAWspace projects.

Support Tasmanian artists to develop their creative practice and new work.

Your donations fund:

- A one week residency in the Theatre Royal Studio Theatre
- Artist fees
- Staffing support – mentoring, dramaturgical, technical, marketing and front of house

TR Future Stages

TR Future Stages provides Tasmanian students in Years 10 to 12 with the opportunity to experience productions, access behind-the-scenes, and participate in creative workshops that connect them more closely with arts professionals and pathways to a career in the performing arts.

Your donations fund:

- Fees for professional artists, facilitators and mentors to share their knowledge and provide exclusive behind the scenes insights and career pathway information
- Free theatre tickets to attend professional shows and associated Q&A sessions

In 2024

28

students participated in Future Stages

"As a young person in Tassie, I think Future Stages is a great opportunity for the general performing arts community of Tasmania as it gives young people a chance to progress."

Dayna, 2024 Future Stages participant

Please consider making a donation to empower young people like Dayna to pursue a creative career.

Our goal is to raise $25,000 a year for the next three years to deliver Future Stages.

Ways of Giving

- Once-off
- Monthly/Annually
- Support a specific campaign
- Join a Giving Circle connected with TR Future Stages and RAWspace
- Major gift – annually or once-off
- Leave a gift in your will

Bequests

Leave a lasting mark on the Tasmanian arts community by considering including a gift in your will to the Theatre Royal.

Your legacy can ensure that Tasmanians can enjoy the magic of live performance for generations to come.

This is a very personal decision and should only be made after discussion with those assisting you with the drafting of your will.

TR Future Stages and RAWspace Giving Circles

Our Giving Circles are a group of visionary donors who share a passion for supporting Tasmanian talent and access to the performing arts.

Please consider joining a Giving Circle if you have the capacity to provide multi-year support at a higher level.

Donate now and help us make a difference in the lives of young Tasmanians.

www.theatreroyal.com.au/donate

For more information on how best to direct your support, please contact our Business Development and Brand Manager: (03) 6416 3316
development@theatreroyal.com.au

All donations over $2 are tax deductible.

Images credits

p2 – Applause: Jillian Mundy

p3 – RAWspace: Rosie Hastie

p3 – Future Stages: Cassie Sullivan

This page – Applause: Jillian Mundy